

innovation in control

Job Title: Project Installation & Commissioning Engineer
Department: Projects Department
Base: Atlanta/Decatur GA
Reports to: Projects Manager
Salary: Competitive, depending on skills and experience.

Established in 1985 in the U.K., Escada Systems supply state of the art control and supervisory systems to industry. We are looking for Project Installation & Commissioning Engineers to join our U.S. based team.

This exciting opportunity will see you working as part of our dynamic Projects team, responsible for the successful installation, commissioning and support of our core products to customers throughout North, South and Central America.

You will be a proactive, self-motivating and approachable team member, who is a good communicator and comfortable representing the company face to face with customers. Your responsibilities will develop as you gain knowledge and experience.

KNOWLEDGE & EXPERIENCE

Essential

- Proficient electrical knowledge.
- Excellent organizational skills.
- Able to read and understand electrical schematics.
- Computer literate.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Willingness to work within a team.
- Valid passport and willingness to travel.
- Fluent in English and Spanish.

Desirable

- Project management knowledge & experience.
- Experience of CAD systems for electrical design.
- Strong Word and Excel skills.

Other Requirements

- Clean driving license.